Blue Springs Municipal Division 241

How to Handle a Warrant

If you have missed a court date with the Blue Springs Municipal Division Court, a warrant may have been issued for your arrest. Below are the options available to you so you can handle your warrant as soon as possible.

Option 1: Appear in court during a Walk-in Docket

- The quickest way to address an outstanding warrant is to appear in person during a walk-in docket to speak with the judge.
- Walk-in dockets are held Monday - Thursday at 11 a.m. each day.
- Please arrive by 11 a.m. Walk-in dockets may end quickly if there are only a few cases.
- During the walk-in docket, you will have the opportunity to speak with the judge regarding your warrant and your case.
- If your case can be resolved that day, the judge will explain your available options.

Option 2: Hire an attorney to assist you with your case.

You may choose to hire an attorney to represent you. An attorney will be able to:

- Explain your legal options.
- Assist you in requesting a new court date, when appropriate.
- Represent you during court proceedings.

Follow your attorney's instructions and appear at any court date they advise you to attend.

Option 3: Post bond.

You may post bond at the Blue Springs Police Department or another law enforcement agency within the Kansas City, Missouri metropolitan area.

- Bonds may be posted 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
- Bonds are accepted in cash only.
- Once your bond has been posted, you will receive a new court date.
- You must appear at your new court date to handle your case.
- Your cash bond may be applied toward fines and court costs ordered assessed by the judge.
- Any remaining balance will be refunded after your case has been resolved.
